ABOUT THE STATE

Brandon has a gun club with 40 charter members, formed for trap shooting practice.

At the Proctor hospital in 1908, the number of patients treated was 495, of whom 802 were free; house patients, 174.

Patrick J. Coffey, aged 73 years, a former resident of Rutland, died Sunday night at the Vermont Soldiers' Home, Bennington. Mr. Coffey enlisted at Burlington in Company B, 17th Regt., Vt.
Vol., and he served in this regiment until the close of the war.

Miss Mildred Foster, daughter of Congressman and Mrs. D. J. Foster of Burlington, underwent an operation for appendicitis at the George Washington University hospital in Washington Wednesday morning. The operation was successful and the patient's rapid recovery is expected.

Ferdinand H. Pease, who has been private secretary of United States Senator William P. Dillingham, has been promoted to the position of clerk of the Senate committee on immigration, to succeed Paul Dillingham, who has a dissirable position with the transportation bureau of the Merchants' Association of San Francisco.

Dr. John D. Hanrahan of Rutland, who has practiced medicine in Rutland about forty years, has announced his intention of celebrating the 40th anniversary of his career April 12 by a big reception.
Doctor Hanrahan, who is a graduate of New York University, served as a surgeon in the army during the four years of the Civil war, coming to Rutland after practicing a year in Montreal. He was born in Ireland in 1844 and came to this country in 1860. He was a delegate to the Democratic national convention of 1884, 1888, and 1892.

H. H. Miller of the Welch Brothers Map Company, Burlington, advises that reports on the maple industry from central Ohio indicate the largest yield on record, with more than an average amount already made and no signs of the season winding up. Northern Ohio in the western reserve district, where the largest amount is produced, reports three-fourths of an average crop, with the producers still at it. He also reports that very few have tapped as yet in Vermont, but that tapping will probably be begun generally next week, with indications of an average yield, or as much as a year ago.

Deputy sheriffs, it appears, may still hold their jobs and not be deprived of a living wage by the law passed by the last legislature, as was feared by certain Burlington officials. The claim was made that deputies are allowed nothing except their regular fee of ten cents per mile for the service of writs. This, however, is slightly in error. Section 8210 of the

DON'T SUFFER A MOMENT

Many Folks Here Unnecessarily Suffering From Stomach Trouble—If You Had Some Diapiesin You Would Not Suffer.

Miserable indeed is the man or woman whose digestive system is unstrung —who goes to the table and can not eat or what little is eaten seems to fill them and lays like a lump of lead in the stomach, refusing to digest.

If you, dear reader, suffer this way and will put on your wraps now and get from your pharmacist a 50-cent case of Diapiesin and eat one 22-grain Triangule after your next meal you would appreciate, five minutes later, how long you suffered unnecessarily.

There will be no more indigestion—no misery in the stomach—no sour risings or belching of gas, no heartburn, flatulency or eructations of undigested food and acid or feeling of nausea, fullness, headache or other symptoms of a weakened stomach.

Stomach trouble and indigestion vanishes like snow before the blazing sun.

When Diapiesin works your stomach rests—gets itself in order. Diapiesin purifies and sweetens a sour stomach and freshens the intestines without the use of laxatives, and what is more, it increases the gastric juices. This is what your stomach is begging for—more and better digestive juices. This is what makes you hungry and want to eat, and you can rest assured that you then eat will be taken care of properly and not left in the stomach to ferment and turn to gas and acid, and poison the breath with nauseous odors.

Get a 50-cent case from your druggist now—you ought to have Diapiesin about the house always. Should one of your family eat something which does not agree with him or her, or for a sour stomach or excessive gas, one Triangule will always give immediate relief.

public statistics provides that the fees of officers shall be the same as before with the exception of the reading fee of six cents per writ, which has been discontinued as useless. For making copies of writs, the deputies are allowed seven cents per folio of 100 words, the former price being 10 cents per folio, but the average price of a county court writ is nearly one dollar, while the costs of a justice's writ are about 75 cents.

Interesting Suit Tried.

A case in which sailors on Lake Champlain are vitally interested and now drawing toward the close of a long litigation is that of Sylvester Ploof vs. Henry W. Putnam, commenced Wednesday in the Chittenden county court. Mr. Ploof sues $3,000 damages for the loss of a sloop in November, 1904. He says that in a violent storm he moored his vessel at the dock on Putnam's island, owned by H. W. Putnam of New York. Albert Williams, Putnam's caretaker, unmoored the hawsers, setting the sloop adrift, and it was wrecked on Thompson's Point, endangering the lives of Mr. Ploof's family, who were aboard. The case has been to the supreme court on a demurrer to two counts in the declaration. The supreme court sustained the declaration and decided that Ploof had cause of action under the statement of the case.

GALE SPELLED 'EM DOWN.

Guilford Man Was the Winner in Unique Match at Brattleboro.

Brattleboro, March 20.—The board of trade beat the woman's club in a big spelling match in the Auditorium Thursday night, and the individual credit goes to John E. Gale of Guilford, who for a long time was obliged to spell five times as many words as those competing against him. Mrs. Howard C. Rice misspelled "galliered" and Mr. Gale spelled it, thereby winning the principal prize of $10 in gold. Mr. Gale was carried on the shoulders of his team-mates around the stage, while the big audience cheered and applauded. The object of the match, for the civic improvement of Brattleboro, filled the house.

The make-up of the board of trade team was as follows: John E. Gale, W.
H. Perry, Robert C. Bacon, F. L. Smith, E. H. Crane, Hyland Tasker, W. A. Gilbert, C. G. Fitts, John Tasker, E. J.
Collis, James F. Hooker, Dr. A. L. Peltee, Arthur P. Simonds, Leon C. White, C. O.
Robbins, G. L. Dunham, Rev. H. A. Good-line, Fred C. Adams, O. F. Benson, A. L.
Maynard, C. R. Crosby, H. J. Moran, John C. Pellett, H. O. Rice and L. I.
Leander.

The woman's club team consisted of Mrs. H. C. Rice, Mrs. C. C. Fitts, Mrs.
J. E. Mellen, Mrs. A. H. Webb, Mrs.
Martin Austin, Mrs. G. F. Barber, Mrs.
L. A. Barrows, Mrs. H. R. Brown, Mrs.
L. A. Butterfield, Mrs. H. J. Clark, Miss Susan E. Clark, Mrs. O. G. Covey, Miss Mary Fitts, Mrs. W. H. Lane, Mrs. L. I.
Allen, Mrs. O. E. Randall, Mrs. W. S.
Stearns, Mrs. C. H. Thompson, Mrs. G.
E. Warner, Mrs. Jennie T. Warren, Mrs.
George M. Clay, Mrs. F. H. Howard, Mrs.
G. O. Abbott, Mrs. D. Leonard and Mrs.
Frank W. Nichols.

The big match had been discussed in every household and on the streets several weeks, and the printed question, "Can You Spell?" met the eye everywhere.
The members of the woman's club team held daily rehearsals, and while the men held no formal examination, their common form of salutation was to propound some jaw-breaking and brain-racking word.

The success of the recent match between the high school seniors and the public stimulated general interest in spelling, and the opportunity was quickly seized by the woman's club and the board of trade to turn that interest into some civic improvement for Brattleboro.

Committees were appointed, special prizes offered, and soon everybody was spelling, even the children. Fraternal societies took up the idea for private amusement, not only in Brattleboro, but in other towns in the county.

In two hours after the sale of seats had opened, the greater part of the seating capacity of the auditorium had been sold, and the rest of it was soon disposed of.

The woman's club committee consisted of Mrs. L. D. Martin, Mrs. Howard C.
Rice and Miss Mary Shakerley, while the active workers for the board of trade were Dennison Cowles, Arthur P. Simonds and George M. Clay. Mrs. Clarke C. Fitts was appointed captain of the
